HOTEL HELP STRIKE

Hall Boys, Elevator Boys and Chamber Maid Revolt.

Labor Troubles at the New York Hote! This Morning.

Mrs. Blaine and Her Mother Among the 150 Guests Disturbed.

Everything is at edds and ends at the New House, was put in to manage the property

Not long ago, it is said, Mr. Stokes displaced Mrs. Osborn, who had been housekeeper of the hotel for a great many years, and engaged as housekeeper Miss M. A. Enright, of the Holland House. He told Mrs. Osborn that she could say in the employ of the hotel if she could stay in the employ of the hotel if she would like second place under Miss En-The hall boys say that a few days ago the new manager dismissed a number of the chambermaids, and that in order to make up for this reduction in the force the head hallboy, Thomas L. Munroe, ordered one of the boys to assist in dusting the office and scrubblog the floor.

The imposition of this extra work the hall-boys indignantly resented, and when they found that they could get no satisfaction from the manager, to whom they complained, they decided to go on strike. There are ten of them bit ogether.

The three elevator boys also went out with The imposition of this extra work the hall-

The three elevator boys also went out with that they cannot stand the hard work which has been put on them, and declare that they, too, will stop work to-day unless something is done to lighten their burden. There are 140 employees at the hotel and they are all more or less disturbed.
There are one hundred and fifty guests in the hotel who take a great interest in this nevel labor movement, and they are now debating whether they will stop and see it out or get out of the old and well-known hostelry Among the guests are Mrs. Nevins, Mrs. James G. Blaine, jr., Edwin Allen, the Wall street broker, and his wife, and Senator Mo-Mahon. If the chambermaids all go out, as they threaten, there will be a pretty how-

His Divorced Wife Will Not Bay Why They Are Suppressed, A despatch received from Washington to day says that there will be no publication of the love letters of James G. Blaine, jr., to his wife, which the latter threatened to furnish to the press if Secretary Blaine refused so to do within a specified period of ten days. The reason ascribed for the suppression o these interesting documents is the finesse of a friend of Secretary Blaine-believed to be Secretary Eikins—who very diplomatically arranged with Mrs. Marie Nevins Blaine that they should not be handed to the press, if indeed they are not to be transferred to the custody of secretary Blaine himself.

they should not be handed to the press, if indeed they are not to be transferred to the custody of secretary Biaine himself.

No attempt was made to conceal the impression in Washington that perhaps a moretary consideration had trought about the suppression of the letters, as in young Mrs.
Biaine s statement to the press over her own signature March I she declared positively that she would give Secretary Biaine only ten days to publish all her letters to her husband, eise she would make them public herselt. A mouth has elapsed, and the letters have yet to be published.

Young Mrs. Biaine is at the New York
Betel with her parents, Col. and Mrs. Nevins.
To an Evening Would reporter Mrs. Biaine sent word this morning that "she did not consider herself at all responsinle for what might be said in Washington, and she did not choose to discuss the question or the suppression of the letters."

It is known that Mrs. Biaine, fr., has not been well since her arrival from shoux Falis, S. D., five weeks ago, and that she has scarcely left her rooms. Hincess may be the cause of the delay in giving out the letters, but Mrs. Biaine did not even care to present that excuse in refutation of the above reports.

While the Third Appears to Be an Open Race.

The card at Guttenburg to-day is not an interesting one. Several of the races are practically given away to certain horses, and thus the interest in these is destroyed. Rinfax looks to have a walkover in the first and Pedestrian in the second. Such races as these will not attract crowds to the track, which fact the management will soon learn. The other races look fairly good. Irregular, Ballarat, Azrael, Alma T., Salisbury and Blancho ought to furnish the best race of the day. The track will be dry and fast. The entries

Acting Supt. Byrnes declined to give any information regarding the details of these reports, simply saying that the order was issued to place him in an intelligent position while he was at the head of the Police Department. The effect of the order, he said had been very satisfactory.

It is rumored about Headquarters that next Monday's report of the capitains may result in some of them being before the Police Commissioners for discipline, as the Acting Superintendent is believed to be in earnest about suppressing disorderly places.

The cases of liable Adams and other persons strested as a result of Dr. Parkhurst's crusade, which were set own for trial to-day before Recorder Smyth in the Court of General Sessions, were adjourned.

Ferryboat Arizona and Sound Steamer Waterbury Collide.

Panic Among the Arizona's Passengers, but None Was Hurt.

The Waterbury Uninjured, the Ferryboat Badly Crippled.

The freight steamboat Waterbury of the Bridgeport line and the ferry-boat Arizona of the Brooklyn and New York Ferry Company's Broadway and Grand street line were itaton on the East River this morning, with disastrous results to the ferry-boat. Fortunately, almost miraculously, no loss of life nor accidents to passengers resulted on either craft, but for a time there was a slight panic among the fifty or sixty people on the terry-boat. The Arizona was just about entering the Grand street slip, on the New York side, when the Waterbury rounded the bend in the river coming down stream. Accounts differ as to the responsibility for the collision, but passengers on the ferry-boat think that the Hardly had the Sound steamer hove in sight when she crashed, head on, through the Arizona's starboard paddle-box; making a big hole three or four feet wide, reaching from the water line to the upper deck, and smash ing her wheel into a useless mass of broken bers and twisted fronwork.

Tue Waterbury backed off, and her captain, finding her uninjured except a partial tearing away of her stem steamed on down to pier 35, at the foot of Catharine street.

The Arizona, rendered helpless by her injuries, drifted with the flood tide up to Twenty-third street. Several attempts wer made at the various docks passed to lass the drifting craft by throwing her lines, but all were in vain. Finally the ferryboat Warren, of the same line, which piles between Grand street, Williamsburg, and Grand street, this city, gave chase, and overtaking her, towed her buck to Grand street, New York, where she awaits repairs.

Chris Gue, a produce clerk, tiving in Willjamsburg, but employed in New York, said to HARRISON AND MORTON, TOO. an Evening World reporter : "It was about 4.25 o'clock when the acc dent occurred. I was sitting in the forward

As there were wounds and contusions about the dead boy's head, it was for a time suspected that he had come to his death at the hands of another.

"We drifted around for an hour, and I nearly lost my situation because I was late. As it was I jumped out of a window and onto another ferryboat in the slip, or I would have been detained still longer. "So far as I can judge the ferry-boat's pilot was to blame." The reporter could learn nothing at the

Their Nomination Has Been Practi cally Determined Upon. CHICAGO, April 11.-A morning paper says Vice-President Morton is to be r with President Harrison at the Minneapolis Convention. That fact was practically determined at a secret meeting of Republican magnates in Chicago yesterday. It was a private gathering, but rumors of the business done were plentiful. Senator Sawyer, of Wisconsin, Senator Allison, of Iowa, Jesse Spalding, a representative of Senator culiom, it is said, and others participated in the conference.

While every precaution was taken to prevent the fact of the meeting being mad public, enough was ascertained of what took place to warrant the announcement that the political managers of the Northwestern states will within the next week secure the delegates from that section of the country for the renomination of Mr. Morton.

Those clossed talked over the whole situation so far as the Republican National sominations are concerned, and they agreed that it would not be wise to nominate a Western man for the Vice-Presidency with Harrison, of Indiana, as the candidate for President.

The salary of that office is $2,500 per year, which, it is said, is increased to $4,500 by unofficial fees and perquisites.

Cyrus W. Field, ir.'s home at 264 West Seventy-third street was closed this morning, and on inquiry at the father's house it was learned that he was out of town.

It is said that the appointment is a result of the recent inaucial catastrophe that befell the Field family through the financial collapse of Edward M. Field, now in the insane Asylum at Buffalo.

Secretary Tracy and other well-known Republican leaders interested themselves in young Field's behalf, but it is claimed on good authority that President Harrison's decision to send him sbroad followed a personal appeal by Mrs. Garrield, the widow of President Garrield, for his appointment.

Cyrus W. Field was one of the prime movers in starting the Garrield for his appointment.
